1 (In open court.)

2 THE CLERK: 18 C 7686, In re Lion Air Flight.

3 THE COURT: All right. Good morning.

4 MR. GARDINER: Good morning, your Honor.

5 MR. BURLEY: Good morning, your Honor. Dan Burley for 6 defendant The Boeing Company.

7 MR. LESSMEISTER: Good morning, your Honor. James
8 Lessmeister on behalf of Fahrida Kurniawati, motion to 9 substitute as counsel, along with my co-counsel, Jimmy Samad.

10 THE COURT: All right.

11 MR. GARDINER: And Tom Gardiner and John Wrona,
12 current counsel for both Fahrida and Vini Wulandari.

13 THE COURT: All right. So this is a motion to 14 substitute on the first Boeing crash, and it's the pilot -- or 15 one of the pilots that is the deceased person in this case,
16 correct?

17 MR. GARDINER: Yeah. It's the first officer, Judge.

18 THE COURT: Okay. And is he an Indonesian citizen?

19 MR. GARDINER: He is.

20 THE COURT: Or Indonesian?

21 MR. GARDINER: Or was.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Yeah, because I thought one of the 23 pilots was Italian or --

24 MR. GARDINER: No. The other one is Indian.

25 THE COURT: Indian. Okay. All right.

1 But I believe that's the only person who was not
2 Indonesian who died in the crash. Is that correct?

3 MR. GARDINER: I think you're correct, Judge.

4 THE COURT: All right. So there was a suggestion in 5 the -- Mr. Lessmeister, there's a suggestion in the response to 6 the motion to substitute that you be allowed to file an
7 additional appearance as counsel for Ms. Kurniawati. Do you
8 agree to that suggestion?

9 MR. LESSMEISTER: Your Honor, no. Here's why.
10 Ms. Kurniawati is the wife of the deceased. And under Islamic 11 law, since she has three children -- two sons and one
12 daughter -- the co-administrator, Vini Wulandari, has no rights
13 to anything in terms of inheritance. Under Islamic law, the 14 wife, the sons, and the daughters all take.

15 And there is a schism between Vini and Fahrida. So if 16 they're objecting to that, since this was an appointment in 17 state court, then I'll go to state court to resolve that issue.
18 That's my position.

19 THE COURT: And the -- well, the other person is the 20 sister of the pilot.

21 MR. GARDINER: Yes.

22 THE COURT: Of the first officer.

23 MR. GARDINER: Right, and the aunt of the children
24 and --

25 THE COURT: Well, you know, I read the attachment.

1 There was an appointment in state court.

2 MR. GARDINER: Yes.

3 THE COURT: That may be where you have to go if -- all
4 I can decide is -- the people who died in that crash have a
5 right to have counsel represent them, or their families can
6 represent them. If there's a dispute as to who the proper
7 party is to do that, right now, if -- the co-administrators of 8 the estate are proper parties to represent them. If there's a
9 fight as to whether they should be co-administrators of the 10 estate, I think that's a matter you have to take up in state
11 court because they appointed the administrators.

12 MR. LESSMEISTER: Very good, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: I -- correct me -- I will be candid. I
14 don't know the answer to this. But am I wrong on this?

15 MR. GARDINER: No, I think you're right, Judge. I
16 think, though, that there's a distinction here when we talk
17 about the situation, and that is that we're a couple weeks away
18 from the mediation. And we've been involved in this case for 19 many months, since December, I think, of last year.

20 So I think, actually, the clients are better served if 21 we remain in the case; he files his additional appearance. I
22 think the -- the goal of everyone will be to get the best
23 settlement possible independent of whether the -- the widow and 24 the aunt are not getting along a hundred percent.

25 THE COURT: Well, the --

1 MR. GARDINER: So --

2 THE COURT: Your mediation in front of Judge -- former
3 Judge O'Connell is November 14th?

4 MR. GARDINER: Yes.

5 THE COURT: And that's the third one you've had?

6 MR. GARDINER: Yes.

7 MR. WRONA: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Do you expect that to be the final one?

9 MR. GARDINER: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 MR. GARDINER: Given the last time we were before you,
12 Judge --

13 THE COURT: Well, I --

14 MR. GARDINER: -- I think it will be the last.

15 THE COURT: -- made clear what is unclear, I thought,
16 just as to what the next steps in this case were going to be --

17 MR. GARDINER: Yes.

18 THE COURT: -- if you don't settle.

19 MR. GARDINER: I think it will be a very substantive
20 mediation.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Ultimately the question's going to 22 be whether or not the widow of the first officer is -- I don't 23 know whether this is a -- a dispute over the sharing of 24 proceeds of a settlement or a dispute as to whether to settle.
25 And that's where I'm unclear.

1 MR. GARDINER: Judge, I don't think that there -- to
2 me, my understanding is the dispute is more of a family nature
3 rather than a dispute over the desire to settle. I think
4 that -- that both clients will seriously consider settlement.
5 It's not a situation where I think there's going to be a real
6 dispute about that.

7 THE COURT: Because I'm trying to distinguish between 8 going and getting the case settled and then how the proceeds
9 are distributed once there is a settlement.

10 MR. LESSMEISTER: Yes, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: I'll allow you to file an additional 12 appearance in this case. Certainly if there's -- if -- if the 13 widow has a different view as to the -- how the case should be 14 settled, you ought to have a seat at the table and be able to 15 express the views of your client -- your joint client,
16 essentially -- to make sure that there's not a settlement that 17 takes place -- I know Mr. Gardiner and his partner are in 18 communications and wouldn't settle the case without the consent
19 of their clients. But if -- if the widow wants you to come in 20 as additional counsel, I'll allow you to come in in this case.

21 Knocking the other firm off, though, is not something
22 I'm going to do at this point. That's something if it's -- if 23 it happens is going to have to happen based on a state court
24 deciding that you're not the administrator -- or that -- I'm 25 sorry -- that the aunt -- the sister of the first officer is

1 not someone who should be involved in the case. That's a
2 decision I'm not going to unwind because it was already made by 3 a state court judge.

4 It certainly seems -- and I don't know how up to speed
5 you are on the case. But -- and I told -- I'm not speaking out
6 of school. I told this to the lawyers last time. If you don't 7 settle the case, Boeing's going to file a motion for forum non
8 conveniens, and I'm going to decide it. The case is either
9 going to go back to Indonesia, or it's going to stay here.
10 Either decision is not going to stay here. It will go to the 11 Seventh Circuit.

12 But that is something to keep in mind on whether you
13 want -- whether or not you want to delay the settlement
14 conferences when going to state court may cause further delay
15 or -- or make it impossible to complete settlement discussions
16 before Judge O'Connell.

17 So I want you to have a seat at the table so that your 18 client's interests are being properly served if she has a
19 different view of how things should go forward than her current 20 counsel.

21 But I -- you weren't here for the last status, but you
22 should be aware that the next step in this entire tragedy is 23 for me to decide a motion for -- what Boeing has promised to 24 be -- I don't know if they're going to file it, but they have 25 said they will -- a motion for forum non conveniens to have the

1 whole matter transferred to Indonesia.

2 And what I said last time in court is for your
3 benefit. You can't read the case law -- Seventh Circuit case
4 law, the Supreme Court law, and the district court opinions
5 here -- in fact, one involving a crash in Indonesia -- without 6 understanding that their motion is at least a serious motion.
7 Not saying how I'll rule, but it's -- it's not a flier. It's a
8 serious, serious motion.

9 MR. LESSMEISTER: Very good, your Honor.

10 I just have a question for clarification.

11 THE COURT: Yeah.

12 MR. LESSMEISTER: Is -- since Ms. Kurniawati did
13 terminate Mr. Gardiner, would Mr. Gardiner be representing 14 Vini, and then I would be representing Fahrida Kurniawati?

15 THE COURT: Did she terminate him?

16 MR. LESSMEISTER: Yes.

17 MR. GARDINER: She did send a letter to me terminating
18 me, Judge.

19 THE COURT: All right. Well, I don't know the answer
20 to that.

21 MR. GARDINER: Well, I can tell you, as a practical
22 matter, how we would do this, though.

23 THE COURT: Yeah.

24 MR. GARDINER: I would anticipate we would go to the 25 mediation. Counsel would be there with us. He would be the

1 person communicating with Fahrida Kurniawati. We would
2 communicate with Vini. And we'd work together to get a
3 resolution.

4 THE COURT: I -- I think that is fine, absent a
5 resolution in state court that terminates your --

6 MR. GARDINER: Mm-hmm.

7 THE COURT: -- your position and terminates the aunt
8 as having any role in this case.

9 But that's something the state court would have to 10 decide. I doubt they'd decide it before your next scheduled
11 mediation. And I just gave you reasons why a delay in this 12 case may not be in the best interests of the plaintiffs --
13 plaintiff or plaintiffs, whatever it ends up being. So I would 14 hope you both could go to this and work in the best interests
15 of your clients.

16 If you delay it, other forces may take -- may enter
17 the picture that may change the settlement landscape. I don't
18 know. They haven't filed anything yet, and I -- but I made
19 clear that one way or the other, we have to -- there's some 20 plaintiffs that want to move forward with discovery. And I
21 think if that occurs, then I'm sure we'll have motion practice
22 on whether the case stays in the Northern District or goes to 23 Indonesia.

24 MR. GARDINER: Judge, I'm confident we can work
25 together for the benefit of the clients.

1 THE COURT: All right. Well, you have -- your
2 appearance is -- your motion to appear is granted. The motion
3 to substitute is entered and continued. And I'm not going to 4 rule on that. I've told you where to -- what to do in state
5 court if that's the way you want to go.

6 MR. LESSMEISTER: Very good.

7 Your Honor, can I have leave to have my partner, Jimmy
8 Samad, enter his appearance as well --

9 THE COURT: Sure.

10 MR. LESSMEISTER: -- instanter. He's with my firm.

11 THE COURT: All right.

12 MR. LESSMEISTER: And he is my partner.

13 THE COURT: No problem at all.

14 MR. LESSMEISTER: Thank you, your Honor.

15 THE COURT: All right. I think we have a date set in 16 the overall case.

17 MR. GARDINER: I think it's the 21st, Judge.

18 THE COURT: So feel free to appear then either by 19 phone or in person, and you can all report on what's going 20 forward.

21 MR. GARDINER: Thank you, your Honor.

22 MR. LESSMEISTER: Thank you, Judge.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

24 MR. BURLEY: Thank you, your Honor.
